H. H BLACK,
DENTIST,
(Late of the Cincinnati College of Dentists)
Office and Laboratory, No. 10, Alder street, Four Doors from Front, Portland, Ogn.

HAVING secured the services of DR. C. H. MACK, formerly of New York city, and late of St. Louis, who is an experienced and skillful Dentist, I am now prepared to manufacture and insert Artificial Teeth by the following methods, namely: GOLD, SILVER, RUBBER, AMBER, PORCELAIN BASE, GUM ENAMEL, RUBBER ATTACHMENT, CHEOLITE, CONTINUOUS GUM, MICA and ENAMELED PLATE WORK. Some kinds of this work is recommended above all others, and needs but an inspection to prove its superiority for cleanliness, durability and life-like appearance to any artificial teeth in use.

Filling and cleaning teeth, and all operations in Dental Surgery, either mechanical, operative or surgical, performed in the most thorough and highly finished manner. None but the most permanent and finished operations performed, and no inducements to patients by low priced or roughly finished operations. I use no cement in filling teeth, and seek in price to make no competition with cheap Dentists; and desire the patronage of such persons only, as wish their operations performed in the most perfect and skillful manner.

Operations that fail to give satisfaction need not be taken or paid for. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Indigent persons who are unable to pay full professional charges will call before and after office hours. nov4tf

GEN. SUMNER'S WAY.—A letter from Falmouth describes Gen. Sumner's manner of directing his troops in a battle, which will be found somewhat different from the fancy Brigadier style. We quote the following:

During the late battle, General Sumner, in pursuance of an imperative order from Gen. Burnside, remained on this side of the river. That order at least saved us one Major-General. There is usually a great deal of euphonism about a General "leading" his troops. In military language he is leading them when he occupies his appointed place, far in the rear.

But such is not Sumner's mode. Forty years of fighting Indians, Mexicans and rebels, have not toned down his boyish enthusiasm. He goes into a battle con amore, as poor Kearny did. There is a touch of the old-time chivalry, in the way this veteran of nearly seventy—erect and agile as a youth of twenty—dashes into battle, with his white hair and beard streaming in the wind—rides up and down his front line, wherever the bullets fly thickest, cheering, rallying and literally leading his men. He really seems bullet proof.

He is usually scratched; often has his hat, coat or boots torn, and men killed all around him, but escapes without harm. Once, in Mexico, a bullet struck him square in the forehead. The soldiers insist that it dropped to the ground, flattened, as the ball drops from the forehead of the buffalo. Whether this be true or not, Sumner certainly lived to fight many other days.

Had he been permitted at Fredericksburg, he would doubtless have led the van; but by all human probabilities he must have shared the fate of Bayard. Death permitted no liberties there. No man on horseback who went out on that fiery front, returned to tell what he saw. General Burnside's order saved us the life of an honored veteran. It was a time, too, requiring no impetuosity, but the highest caution and discrimination—when such Generals as Couch, Hancock and Howard were compelled to exercise their utmost circumspection.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB 10 1863

Duties of a Free Press

The ordinary duties of a Free Press are simple, requiring but the qualifications of good taste in selecting subjects and of fluency and propriety in writing about current affairs, or upon subjects which may tend to instruct, to elevate, or to amuse mankind. If all the world would act according to the most ordinary dictates of common sense, and show a respect for natural and human laws, the province of the press would never transgress these limits. But just because some men will not do right; because they will outrage right and justice; because one class of men will take advantage of their fellows, extraordinary duties devolve on the leaders of public journals. For this reason, a greater latitude is allowed the press in ferreting out and giving publicity to the transgressions of delinquents in official stations, and good reason shown for a certain line of conduct is a good defense against the powerful, who feel, in the press, that they have their most effectual foe.

Every man must be struck by the censorious tone of the American press, with its reflecting that it arises from the necessities of a people in a transition state, where wealth, corruption and privilege, are attempting to occupy wide fields of action to the detriment of the public interest, and the virtual enslavement of weaker people. Against this, the American press has acted with greater unanimity than that of any other country. It is true that there are servile men connected with it, who count the smiles of rich swindlers of more value than the sincere friendship of an honest man. This particular style of paper is generally controlled by some wretched object, whose physical and moral imperfections would excite our pity, if his insolence did not arouse our anger. He is generally a young man who has failed in the honorable profession of the law, and is laboring under the hallucination that he can "write." Very often a reptile of this character, upon whose body and face God has set the seal of his condemnation, throws himself into public journalism, and in him a tool for any purpose is found however loathsome it may be. Such an one takes to toadying and spit licking as naturally as water does to sugar. If he can find some miserable bummer, whose person has been subjected to the most outrageous indignities a pair is formed capable of any villainy.

But we turn from the contemplation of such a combination of wretches, to the task of describing the duties of a public journalist in extraordinary emergencies. When his country is engaged in civil war, he should stand by her just cause, and not advocate the establishment of a Pacific Republic. When the grave subject of national life or death is pending, he should not devote too much of his space to puffing public drinking houses. Whenever a public officer is caught at his tricks, he should at once expose him. If the sneaking representatives of the Servile Press have anything to say in a matter that does not concern them, he should whip the hounds back to their master and give even him to understand that these things can only be done at his peril.

SOLDIERS' VOTES—Great differences of opinion exists in relation to the present political opinions of the Union soldiery. It is conceded that as an element in elections they will be likely to largely influence the loyal States hereafter. In regard to soldier's voting the Sacramento Union of the 28th of January has the following:

The Union war men in the loyal States seem to be determined to compel the "Democracy" to show their hands upon the question of allowing the volunteer soldiery to participate in future elections. The Connecticut election will take place in April, and the Peace party, which is extremely noisy and virulent in that State, has been confidently calculating upon achieving success in the absence of a large body of loyal voters. The Legislature, at the extra session in December, passed a law providing for taking the volunteer vote, the "Democrats" voting against the measure in a body. After opposing the bill without avail, the same party appealed to the Supreme Court of the State, and that tribunal decided that the measure was unconstitutional. Care has been exercised, however, to get the Connecticut friends of the rebellion upon the record, and that record will be potential hereafter among the friends and relatives of the citizen soldiery.

GOOD RIDDANCE—A cotemporary says that three hundred and sixty five officers of the Army of the Potomac, resigned on account of Gen. McClellan's removal. They were doubtless seeking an excuse for resigning and are a good riddance beyond question. If about one hundred and seventy five Brigadiers should resign we would congratulate the country on the results, provided no more raw material was taken for the manufacture of Generals, but officers or privates distinguished for their patriotism and abilities.

The Call has a private letter from Parras, Mexico, which states that after the fight between a company of Union men and the secession troops on the Nueces River which we gave an account of some time since forty Union men were hanged in the town of Fredericksburg, Texas.

Later from the East

We find fuller details of news in our late California exchanges than any we have had by telegraph. Some of that which is copied below has been telegraphed in part, and the dispatch relative to the Treasury scheme was telegraphed to the words "not any time be outstanding" &c when the wire broke down.

WASHINGTON, January 27th

The Revenue Bill which passed the House yesterday authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow three hundred millions for the current fiscal year and six hundred millions for the next fiscal year, and to issue therefor coupons or registered bonds payable at the pleasure of the Government after twenty years in coin and bearing interest not exceeding six per cent payable semi annually in coin. He may at discretion dispose of such bonds at any time on such terms as he may deem most advisable, for lawful United States money or for any certificates of indebtedness or any treasury notes heretofore issued or which may be issued under the provisions of this Act. All such issues to be exempt from taxation by or under State authority. No greater sum than nine hundred millions of bonds, treasury notes and United States notes shall at any time be outstanding. It is further enacted that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to issue four hundred millions in treasury notes bearing interest not exceeding six per centum payable semi annually in coin, the principal being payable at any time after three years from the date of such notes. They will be receivable for internal duties and all demands due the United States except on imports. Holders are to have the right to exchange the same with the accrued interest for an equal amount of legal tender notes and such treasury notes as may be used by the Secretary of the Treasury, at par value in payment of the lawful creditors of the United States. The Secretary of the Treasury is also authorized to issue $300,000,000 of treasury notes not bearing interest in sums not less than a dollar, which notes are to be lawful money and legal tender. Fifty millions of fractional currency are also authorized. Deposits of coin with the Assistant Treasurer, and the issue of certificates therefor, are provided for, such certificates to be receivable at par in payment of duties on imports.

CHICAGO, Jan 28.—A late Richmond Dispatch says there are unmistakable signs that the Conscription law will be rigidly executed and the military strength of the country, as far as demanded by Congress, fully brought out. The Spring, it hopes, will find the South one vast camp and every man a soldier.

The Charleston Mercury urges strongly the thorough enforcement of the Act in every State.

NEW YORK, Jan 28.—A Key West letter says the intelligence from Galveston is that already have the rebels so heavily fortified the place that retaking possession of it for the present is impossible. They have no doubt secured the batteries of the Harriet Lane and Westfield, and have in the city of Galveston seven thousand men under Magruder.

The U S steamer San Jacinto and the Oneida were to leave Key West shortly in search of the pirate Alabama.

A Yorktown letter, dated Jan 26th says: Two deserters who came into our lines report Gen Wise with eight thousand men within six miles of Williamsburg, advancing on Yorktown.

NEW YORK, January 28th.—The Herald's Washington dispatch dated last night, states that Governor Andrew of Massachusetts left for Boston to day, taking with him authority to raise regiments of negroes.

WASHINGTON, Jan 28.—In the Senate Collamer, of Vermont, from Post Office Committee, reported back the bill establishing a system of postal money orders with a recommendation that it do not pass.

CAIRO, Jan 29.—Gen Rosecrans department is extended so as to include Forts Donelson and Henry, and Clarksville. Information has been received that Gen McClernand's forces landed on the Louisiana shore, five miles below the mouth of the Yazoo, in full view of Vicksburg. Two brigades were engaged in opening the famous cut off. The informant thinks that this time it will be a perfect success as the river bank is full, and the water rushes by at a fearful rate. He also thinks that if the channel becomes large enough to admit of the passage of boats the rebels will be allowed to hold Vicksburg while the Federals will turn their attention to matters further South. In his opinion, it would take 150,000 men to storm their fortifications. Our gunboats and mortars could shell the city from where they are, but even if the city were entirely destroyed its fortifications which extend for miles back would be as formidable as ever. Gen Grant left Memphis for below with one division on Tuesday. The rebels still continue to fire on our boats from shore batteries, between Memphis and Helena.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 29th

Steamer Pacific from Portland and Victoria, arrived this morning with $88,000.—Ship Golden Fleece, 12 days from New York arrived last night.

SACRAMENTO, Jan 29th.—In the Assembly, Mr Martin offered a resolve that a committee of five be appointed to investigate the Watrous and Smith bribery affair. Tabled. The House being satisfied for the present with the caucus investigation. Adams gave notice of a bill to establish an Agricultural College.—Whipple introduced a bill making U. S. Legal Tender Notes receivable for taxes, a substitute for Smith's bill, to prevent speculations in greenbacks by revenue officers, was ordered engrossed. Bills were passed to provide for funding the debt of San Bernardino, and for redemption of outstanding warrants in Tuolumne. A Joint resolution was adopted declaring valid the constitutional amendments. The two Houses met in Joint Convention and elected Dr John F Morse, State Library Trustee vice John R McConnell resigned.

THE FRENCH IN LOUISIANA.—A French paper, L'Italie, has the following:

We learn that a great number of families of French extraction in Louisiana whose property has been subjected to sequestration by the recent acts of General Butler have appealed to the treaty of 1803 by which that colony was ceded to the United States. In that Diplomatic Convention it was stipulated by France that the full enjoyment of their liberty and their property and the unrestricted observance of their religion was to be guaranteed to the citizens of that colony. The families in question claim the intervention of France to obtain the fulfilment of these clauses of the primitive cession.

VIRGINIA.—J C McLeod has been elected to Congress by the voters of the Norfolk District, Virginia. McLeod was born in Virginia but is not an F F V however. He started life as a school teacher and is said to be well educated and thoroughly competent for the position to which he has been elected. The vote which was the first by ballot in Norfolk was as large as usual making the necessary allowance for the males absent in the rebel army or within the rebel lines.

Foff, who killed Wm Chapman in San Francisco has been held on a charge of murder.

INAUGURATION OF GOV SEYMOUR.—A dispatch from Albany of January 1st gives the following account of the inauguration of Gov Seymour, which is all that has been received in this State on that subject:

The inauguration of Governor Seymour took place in the Assembly Chamber of the State Capitol to day at eleven o'clock in presence of a large and distinguished assemblage. Many of the Seymour Clubs and other Democratic organizations from different parts of the State were represented and a number of the leading representatives of the party were present. The crowd filled the chamber and the rotunda of the Capitol and crowded the park in front of the building. So large a gathering has not been witnessed at the inauguration of a Governor of this State for many years. The oath of office was administered to Governor Seymour and Lieutenant Governor Jones by Secretary of State Ballard, and when the requirements of the Constitution had been complied with Governor Morgan who appeared at the Speaker's desk in company with Governor Seymour spoke as follows:

Governor Seymour, the oath you have just taken fulfills the requirements of the Constitution and laws and again formally invests you with the high office of Governor of the State of New York. As such I now greet you and tender to you in your administration all the support which a private citizen can give. Confiding in your ability and patriotism the people of this your native State, have called you to the discharge of duties second only in importance to those of the Chief Magistrate of the United States. A change of administration here has never taken place at a period so crowded with vital events as now. Fortunately the duties are not new to you, and though of the gravest character and of the most perplexing nature, yet in their conscientious discharge you will have the approbation of all good men. Herein will be your reward. In closing an administration of four years duration in the midst of a civil war, in which I have found it necessary to assume more than ordinary responsibilities I should have felt a satisfaction in speaking in detail especially in reference to military affairs, but as usage has not sanctioned this the chiefs of the several staff departments have been directed to make full reports for use. To these I refer for specific information as to the part New York has borne in the war.

As however you will be scrupulously careful in relation to whatever concerns the honor or the interest of the State, I know it will be gratifying for you to be assured that its credit never stood higher; that its funded debt is rapidly diminishing; that its principal and interest have been promptly paid in coin; that the public funds are adequate for every proper demand on them; that the surplus revenues of the canals have increased from $900,000 in 1858 to $4,000,000 in 1862, and that taxation may be largely reduced the present year, and this when scarcely less than a quarter of a million of our people are voluntarily engaged in the military service of the country. Of such a State and with such a record we may well be proud. Would that I could speak thus encouragingly of National affairs but we may not anticipate immediate peace. Millions of people, aroused by imaginary wrongs to fierce passion cannot at once return to reason. Their resentments must have time to cool, and the delusion under which they act are to be dissipated, but the day must surely come when the people of the South will again own the same sovereignty, honor the same laws, and fight under the same flag. At present, we must use the sword, it cannot be sheathed until those in rebellion shall lay down their arms, and the Constitution and the laws have uniform sway."

The irrepressible Dr Rabe, late Marshal of California, has been appointed by President Carrera, Consul for Guatemala for the United States Pacific coast.

Good diet makes healthy children, and the South Sea Islanders think that healthy children make good diet.

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement. dec16d&w6m

Storage.—THE FIRE-PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite Umatilla House is the only building "not made of wood" at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1.50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1.00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—67 cents.

GREENBACK QUOTATIONS.—By our last night's advices Legal Tender Notes were quoted at 65 and 70 cents in San Francisco. The telegram to this paper of the same date was a falsehood, and we so expressed our opinion in regard to it, as it fixed the rate at 60 cents, with slow sales. There is an evident appreciation in this class of U. S. securities. It is plain that there is villainous work in "bearing" greenbacks. The source of mischief is in San Francisco. We do not censure the operator at Yreka.

PROTECTION'S UNIFORM.—The hats and belts for Protection Engine Company No. 4, have arrived. The first are extremely light, with eight cones, and the owner's initials and "4" in white letters. The belts are black, with the name and number of the company upon them. Black pants and plain red shirt complete the uniform. We hope to hear a good account of Protection's men, and believe when they get well to work that they will be a valuable addition to our present efficient fire department.

SNOW.—Yesterday morning found the ground covered with snow. During the day it rained and snowed, with alternations of sunshine, all day; closing with a trifle of snow on the ground.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court for Multnomah County, Fourth District, will commence to-day, E. D. Shattuck, presiding Judge.

A BRAVE COLOR BEARER.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, thus speaks of the color bearer of the Massachusetts Nineteenth regiment:

Patrick Dunn is the name of an ensign belonging to a Massachusetts regiment, who was shot through the upper part of his head at Fredericksburg, and who lately arrived in this city tolerably well. This was his seventh battle, and the third time he has been wounded. He seems to entertain no doubt of his recovery, and, just as soon as he is well enough, he intends to return again. His regiment formed a part of our right in the recent battle, and suffered severely, but he says the left wing paid the rebels with compound interest. The colors of Massachusetts were shot down eight times during the engagement, and he was carrying them when tumbled over. This man has a wife and children, and a nice little farm in Massachusetts, all of which he has left behind, to fight for his country.

TEST OF LOYALTY.—The Albany Evening Journal, of the 27th of December, forcibly remarks:

There is one test of unconditional loyalty that never fails: When you find a man so intent on finding fault with the loyal Government that he has no waste wrath to bestow on a conspiracy to break up the Union and destroy the Republic, set him down as a doubtful patriot. No man, whose heart is in the right place, will permit his hostility to be diverted from the Rebellion to those who are fighting it. He who thinks it a greater crime to arrest a babbler of disloyal sentiments without "due process of law" than to strike down the flag of his country, will bear vigorous watching.

DISTRESS IN NASHVILLE.—The Nashville Union says that nearly one thousand families belonging to soldiers now in the rebel service, or have been killed or died in that service, are in that city without food, clothing or wood, and are daily making piteous appeals to the Federal officers for relief.

OREGON DEMOCRAT.—The Oregon Democrat has resumed publication under its old name, and not as the State Democrat as was proposed. The publishers promised in their prospectus to make it "the best newspaper on the Pacific Coast;" a promise of which their is small fulfillment in the first number. Otherwise, it is nearly as good a Joe Lane paper as the Corvallis Union.

NICARAGUA ROUTE.—The Nicaragua route is again opened, and a steamer will sail from San Francisco, 11th of March, connecting with steamer on the Atlantic side, thus offering a favorable opportunity for passage at fair rates.

President Lincoln contributed $650 to the sum collected by the efforts of Mrs. Smith, to provide a dinner to thirty thousand sick and wounded soldiers in Washington.

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY.

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed, in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure, in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

Prepared only by ROBERT WHITE, Chemist and Druggist, Main street, Placerville, and Broadway, Upper Placerville. For sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the State.

DOCTOR VAN ZANDT,

CONSULTING PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,

Office, Corner of Washington and Sansome streets, San Francisco.

The GREAT SUCCESS of this CENTURY as an AID to PRACTICAL MEDICINE.

The Mysterious Problem of Material Nature, Definitely made subservient for the Cure of all Nervous and Spinal Diseases

THAT THIS PRINCIPLE SUCCESSFULLY APPLIED [illegible] the system is to prove the great [illegible] by physicians, to aid them in [illegible] organic and functional derangements of the human body. It is a part of that great principle of vitality known as nervous influence and necessarily must have much to do in [illegible] diseased action.

Too Much Cannot be Said

In its [illegible] it is highly probable that in health there is an exact equilibrium of the Electric principle and should this equilibrium [illegible] equipoise of health be broken [illegible]—should the body be negatively electrified when it should be positively charged—is not the current broken and is there not a war of forces going on in the system? This needs correcting, and in order that the [illegible] of the body should be perceptible to remedial agents, we must first rest [illegible].

Awoken the Magnetic Life within us

The [illegible] sympathetic nervous systems. Believing as I do most firmly in this great magnetic or electrical [illegible] of the earth with its influence upon our bodies in health and disease [illegible] take advantage of the [illegible] through which to awaken attention to the subject, that good may come to all.

No Compromise with Disease.

[illegible] and nature will relieve herself [illegible] the stomach liver heart, kidney and all the natural functions active by ELECTRICAL [illegible] the palsied, the nervous [illegible] the melancholic, the dyspeptic and the invalid revive under its benign influence.

To the Ladies of California.

Dr. Van Zandt's success with complaints of women, both in family and office practice is owing to his correct views of the origin of all their maladies. Ladies can consult him with entire confidence as he is no speculator upon human ills—but is proving himself the only member of the legitimate profession in California who is really successful in removing the ills which are the peculiar province of the sex. His high appreciation of their delicately attuned nervous organism, together with their great sympathetic life, renders him doubly able to assuage those silent complainings which they bear so patiently and so long. No social disquietude need longer afflict our home circles for he can awaken the stricken energies, restore the wonted tonicity of the body, awaken the melancholic and despondings, arrest those drains which cause so much anxiety, cure those protean maladies which have so long

Baffled the Skill of Physicians.

Devel[illegible] appetite life and animation dispel nervous headache [illegible] at the stomach wandering pains, wasting away of strength, extreme debility and lifelessness, hectic cough, sleeplessness, unpleasant dreams and that general depression of life's powers, which go to render her life a misery and death a boon. Dr. Van Zandt, with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current, together with his remedial measures which are adapted to the necessities of California, will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities, and will restore you to usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over wherever disease exists, whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual, acute or chronic, contagious or non-contagious—it is as necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, especially in California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years, and verified by hundreds of patients, so that no principle of science, no rule of experience, no result of any well known cause, rests upon more sure and unassailable foundations than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility or prostration, coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms of disease, the result of scrofulous or cachectic habit of body.

None Need Despair of Relief.

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that cannot be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleeping—lassitude that languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—Go to Dr. Van Zandt, for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation, together with his remedies, which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities, within the scope of science and man to remove.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten, by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr. Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study, and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

Orpheus C Kerr's Last and Best

If there is an American that can read the following extract from one of Orpheus C Kerr's letters, without feeling his heart leap impulsively he is fit for anything that is bad It is one of the finest blendings of the ludicrous with the pathetic which has ever come under our notice. The death scene of Poor Joe in "Bleak House" is alone comparable to it, but in this case the writer treats of a tremendous event, involving the lives of tens of thousands and the deaths of thousands This is his description of the battle of Fredericksburg

Finding that the terrible bombardment of Paris, my boy had routed the straggling Confederacies from that ancient city the whole Mackerel Brigade marched safely across Duck Lake leaving only the Orange County Howitzers on this side Scarcely had the spectacled hosts occupied the city, when there appeared upon the main street the overwhelming Shape of the new General of the Mackerel Brigade mounted upon a steed which was almost as sagacious as a human being, and holding his hat in one hand after the manner of Washington entering Trenton It was as though Frank Leslie's Illustrated artist had just been commanded to draw a warlike picture, my boy, representing one of those equestrian heroes who all appear in precisely the same attitude, and seemed to have lifted their hats for the particular purpose of showing with what mathematical precision their hair is parted

Instantly there arose cheers so loud that they must have been heard by the cowardly Confederacies on the hills beyond Paris, and several Mackerels became so enthusiastic to be led against the enemy that they actually started on the war path by themselves, and only turned back when they discovered that they happened to be going in the wrong direction

Having received all the cheers, and immediately dispatched them to the reliable morning journals around the country, the General of the Mackerel Brigade ordered the Conic Section under Captain Bob Shorty, and Company 3, Regiment 5, under Captain Brown, to march out of Paris and form in line under the guns of the Southern Confederacy at the same time directing Captain Samyule Smith to take Company 2, Regiment 1, and strike through a defile in the hills.

Samyule formed his veterans in the shape of a horseshoe, and says he

"Comrades, now is the time to repent of your sins, for you haven't got much time left. As for myself," says Samyule, seriously, "my sins are are all those of commission, and those who gave me my commission are responsible for them. If any of you younger Mackerels have in your possession the last things your mothers gave you, now is your chance to look upon them for the last time"

As Samyule spoke thus, a small blue object, carrying a drum, toddled forth from the ranks, and saluted. It was a small Mackerel drummer, my boy, who had enlisted only ten days before, and his small eyes were wet with tears. The heroic child wiped his little nose on his sleeve, and says he .

"My mother gave me something "

Samyule was greatly affected, and says he

"Was it a Family Bible, sweet cherub ? "

"No-o-o," sobbed the innocent, as though his little heart would break

Samyule wiped his tear-dimmed spectacles and says he:

"Perhaps it was her daguerreotype ?"

The infant wept afresh, and says he

"No-o-o."

"Then," says Samyule, in a broken voice, "it must have been her blessing "

"No! no-o-o," cried the small Mackerel drummer, with quivering lips.

"Then what in thunder was it that your mother gave you ?" says Samyule, greatly bewildered.

"It was a spanking !" screamed the affectionate little creature, cramming both his little fists into his little eyes, and blubbering hurt-lowedly.

Samyule gazed for a moment at the child, and says he, "Well may affection make thee weep, thou tender little one ! When a sweet [illegible] blushingly places a rose upon her lover's breast, the scene is affecting, but my own memory of childhood tells me that a far deeper feeling is excited when the tender mother selects a different flower, and places upon the back of her child the modest lady's slipper."

Immediately after this affecting little incident, my boy, Samyule led his men to their duty, and they marched into one end of the defile as soldiers, to pass out of the other as spirits.

Along the front, "Forward !" was the word, and the Conic Section swept to the assault, like a sea of bayonets dashed against a shore of adamantine rock from the hollow of an Almighty hand. Were it possible, my boy, for bullets to ascend perpendicularly until they just reached the top of mountain breastworks, and then slant down at an acute angle to where the foe lay hidden, it is possible that the frequent volleys from the Conic Section might have produced some carnage, but as the face of the hill before our troops was straight up and down, with the noisy Confederacies on the extreme summit, the Mackerel [illegible] simply occasioned a rise in Federal lead, without a fall in Confederate leaders

Some Confederacies in their lofty intrenchments just tipped over a few cannon, so that the balls might roll out upon the Mackerels, and, says one of them

"If you mudsills will stay there a little longer, we'll manage it so as to drop the shell on you from our hands, without using the guns at all "

Captain Bob Shorty heard this jeer, and, as he tied his handkerchief over a wound on his forehead, a sickly smile illustrated his ghastly face, and says he

"We might as well all die here together The grave, after all, is a softer bed than many of these Mackerel beings have been accustomed to."

Sergeant O'Pake, who always takes things literally, turned to Bob, and, says he

"What makes it soft ?"

"Because," says Captain Bob Shorty looking reverently at the Sergeant, "it is a bed of down " Did you ever hear the old song of "Down among the Dead Men ?" But let me not linger over the scene, my boy

That night the remaining Mackerels silently crossed Duck Lake, and the General penned the following

DISPATCH

I have withdrawn the Brigade across Duck Lake. The position of the Confederacies is impregnable It was a Military Necessity to attack the enemy or retire I have done both WOBERT WOBINSON

Just as the spectacled veterans gained this side of Duck Lake again, my boy the Mackerel Chaplain was accosted by a Republican chap from Boston, and says he, "This looks like action at last, my friend Our troops are evidently all enthusiasm to be led once more against the foe"

The Chaplain shaded his eyes with his hand, to look at the speaker and says he;

"They are indeed enthusiastic my friend So enthusiastic, in fact, that at least half of them would not come back to this side at all "

"Ah!" says the Republican chap "the noble fellows"

"Yes" says the Chaplain, as softly as though he were speaking in a sick room; "they remain there sleeping upon their arms. And Oh! my friend they will never, never come back again

He spoke truly, my boy and may a kind Heaven see naught in the field willing from their loyal hearts but the blush of [illegible] honor the glory of a patriot fre in which all their human efforts went up to God as the smoke of a glorious sacrifice. They sleep their last sleep upon the arms of their country and whether those arms with which she folds them into her heart be white with the ermine of Winter or green with the drapery of Summer, the clasp shall be none the less strong with all a mother's immortality [illegible]

Proclamation by the Governor

EXECUTIVE OFFICE PORTLAND OREGON
January 6 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon I have been requested to raise six additional companies, required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow-citizens I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men when mounted will be supplied with horses by the United States it being understood that they will be mounted or not as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise a whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments may be entertained The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years unless sooner discharged

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland Dalles City and perhaps at other places By the Governor
